Sperry Associates FCU Thinks Pink with Charity Bowling Event Sponsorship

Strikes and Spares Abound from Credit Union Staffers in Support of the Maurer Foundation.

Melville, NY, February 11, 2019 – Staff members from Sperry Associates Federal Credit Union (SAFCU), one of Long Island’s oldest member-owned financial institutions, bowled themselves over at a charity event in support of the Maurer Foundation, a breast health education foundation.

For the fifth year in a row, SAFCU was the event sponsor of the Maurer Foundation Pink Bowl, which featured 26 teams engaging in friendly competition on the lanes.

“We are grateful for the important work that the Maurer Foundation does across Long Island,” Kevin J. Healy, SAFCU’s Chief Executive Officer said. “Their mission of educating the community about early prevention and detection of breast cancer truly saves lives.”

“Thanks to the generosity of sponsors like Sperry Associates FCU, we can continue our advocacy work,” Susan Samaroo, Executive Director of the Maurer Foundation, said. “This year’s event showcased how our efforts to combat cancer resonate across Long Island.”

In total, the event raised over $13,000 for the non-profit organization.
